Love & Plutonium Wins "Filmrunner Choice" Award

Loose Change Entertainment LLC, in association with Floydapalooza Media LLC, is proud to announce that its second feature film, Love & Plutonium, has been awarded the "Filmrunner Choice Award" from Filmrunner.net, an independent film distribution web site. In addition to the award, LCE received a cash prize and prime placement in the web site's online store. Love & Plutonium is available for purchase on Filmrunner.net for $14.95.

Written by the husband and wife team of Jacquie Floyd and Jeff Priskorn (Troy), and directed by Priskorn, it was shot in late 2003 entirely in Michigan with local talent and crew. The movie premiered to over 225 people in June 2005, and the duo has been marketing the film to festivals since.

Filmrunner.net gave Love & Plutonium the following glowing review: "This comedy is fun to watch, and draws a fine line between good and evil. A little action, a little romance, and a whole lot of funny... this film delivers excellent comedic performances. Fast paced editing and good direction gives this film creative energy and demonstrates unquestionably that indeed 'sometimes love goes BOOM!'"

Loose Change Entertainment is an independent multimedia production company based in Berkley, Michigan. LCE is co-owned by Dan Corrigan, John F. Kerr, and Jeff Priskorn.
