Loose Change Entertainment to premiere feature film "Love & Plutonium" June 23

Loose Change Entertainment LLC, in association with Floydapalooza Media LLC, announces the world premiere of its second feature-length film, Love & Plutonium. The film will debut Thursday, June 23, at 8:00 pm at the Emagine Theater at the Novi Fountain Walk in Novi, Michigan.

Written by Jacquie Floyd and Jeff Priskorn, and directed by Priskorn, it was shot in late 2003 entirely in Michigan with local talent and crew. The soundtrack features songs from national acts Throwing Toasters and Pthalo, as well as respected Michigan band Elixir.

Love & Plutonium is a unique and clever superhero comedy with an atypical romance. It is set in the Good vs. Evil battleground of Suburbiaville, where evil genius Dr. Milo Medlo (Nate Topie) and his loyal henchman Hank (Priskorn) are forever at odds with good girls Justice Kitten (Maggie Patton) and Little Liberty (Floyd). An upset in the delicate balance of power could result in world annihilation, or so the superheroes and villains believe. So when Dr. Medlo falls in love with a receptionist named Holly (Meghan Vigeant) and loses his desire for evildoing, Hank and the lawful ladies must form an unholy alliance to sabotage the relationship or risk losing their livelihoods.

Floyd (Shelby Township, MI) and Priskorn (Berkley, MI) are seasoned veterans with numerous credits on both stage and screen. Floyd has been a principal actor in seven feature films, performs in the traveling comedy troupe "Brainstormers!", is a produced playwright, and holds a B.A. in performing arts from Oakland University. Priskorn, a founding member of LCE, has appeared in a dozen feature films, numerous TV, radio and industrial spots, is lead singer of the rock band Elixir, and co-wrote, co-directed, and was a lead actor in LCE's first feature film, Arbor Daze (2003). Priskorn and Floyd were married on May 15, 2005.

Loose Change Entertainment is an independent multimedia production company based in Berkley, Michigan. LCE is co-owned by Dan Corrigan, John F. Kerr, and Jeff Priskorn. LCE produces the award-winning sketch comedy show, Loose Change TV, as well as numerous full-length feature films.
